Families Away at Fair Leave Doors Locked and Returning Find Houses Unlocked and Valuables Gone

STRANGE MAN IS SUSPECTED

Sheriff's Department is Looking for Fellow Whose Actions Attracted Suspicion

Several articles of jewelry and other valuables, valued at $150, were taken from the homes of Edward Norton and Ben Ricker at McDill, while the Norton and Ricker families were in Stevens Point Wednesday attending the fair.

Following were the articles taken from the Ricker home:

Two certificates of deposit at the Citizens National bank, one for $112 and the other for $200.

Several dollars in change.

One umbrella.

A valuable fountain pen was taken from a tent in the Ricker yard, which is now being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pattee of St. Anthony, Idaho, who are motoring to Massachusetts from Idaho.

These articles were taken from the Norton home:

Two rings, one valued at $100, with an equal setting, and a less valuable one.

Find Doors Unlocked

Both the Ricker and Norton families left their homes at about 10 o'clock in the morning, coming to Stevens Point. When they left home they locked the doors in their houses. At 1 o'clock Mrs. Norton and family returned home, Mr. Norton being at Springfield, and found that the doors in the house were unlocked and the house ransacked. Household articles were strewn about the floors of every room. Search soon disclosed the loss of the two rings and the bracelets.

Houses Are Unset

At 5 o'clock the Ricker family returned and found the doors in their house unlocked and the certificates of deposit gone, together with several dollars in change and an umbrella. They immediately notified the Citizens National bank of the loss of the deposit slips and cancelled payment on them. Their house was also disarranged, drawers being pulled out of different articles of furniture and the contents strewn on the floor of the rooms.

The Pattee tent in the Ricker yard was upset and contents of suit cases spread all about. The only thing stolen here was a fountain pen.

Sheriff W. I. Barager was called by Mrs. Norton, and the case is now being investigated by the sheriff's office.

Suspect Seen at McDill

A man wearing a light grey suit with a straw hat is the only suspect. He was seen about McDill for several hours that day, and, according to McDill people, acted strangely. In the morning he was noticed walking about and was seen in the yard of John Fankert. When Mrs. Fankert went to the front door of the home, thinking that he wished to speak to her, he turned and left the yard. He was seen about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, carrying an umbrella and walking toward Stevens Point. He had no umbrella in the morning.

Follow Strange Man

Thursday afternoon a man answering to the description of the man suspected was seen in McDill, and Mr. Norton and a companion followed him. He went up past the Stevens Point Paper and Pulp company mill into the woods, where he was lost track of.

MAY LOCATE IN WAUPACA

Waupaca Post: "Dr. H. I. Lewis, who left a good dental practice at Washburn to serve in the U. S. army and who recently received his honorable discharge, was in the city Monday looking up prospects for locating for the practice of dentistry. He was accompanied by Mrs. Lewis. They were interested in finding a dwelling. Mr. Lewis is a son of Manning Lewis of Weyauwega."

Mrs. Lewis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cartmill of this city.

FISHING IS GOOD

Anthony Lally, who returned from Rhineland the middle of this week, enjoyed a visit of several days at the home of his brother, Martin Lally, and also spent some time on the farm of James Doyle, a former resident of Stockton. The Doyle property is located near a lake in which fish are abundant and Mr. Lally succeeded in landing several big ones.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH

Wisconsin is awakening to the importance of better protection for the health of the child.

There is added to the statutes a new section to read:

"The board of supervisors of every county shall, within two years after July 1, 1919, employ one or more public health registered nurses or public health instructors, whose duties shall be as follows: To act as health supervisor for all schools not already having school inspection either by a physician or school nurse; to assist the superintendent of the poor; to instruct tuberculosis patients and others in preventing the spread of tuberculosis; to assist in reporting existing cases of tuberculosis and other communicable diseases; to assist in investigating cases of delinquency, neglect and dependency of juveniles, including state aid to dependent children, in counties not employing a probation officer; to assist in investigating cases of non-school attendance in districts where a school attendance officer is not employed; to assist in investigating cases of infringement on child labor laws; to investigate cases of crippled children due to infantile paralysis or other causes; to act as health instructor throughout the county and to perform such other duties as may be assigned to her."

EBERT TAKES OFFICE
AS GERMAN PRESIDENT

Impressive Ceremonies Mark Latest Step in Transition from Hohenzollern Rule to Reign of Democracy

(By United Press)

Weimar, August 22—Another official step in the German transition to the rule of democracy was recorded yesterday, when President Ebert, amid impressive ceremonies, took the oath as president of the republic.

President Fehrenbach of the national assembly, who administered the oath, reminded Ebert of the difficulties of the office and pointed out that the old order had gone forever. Fehrenbach concluded with the hope that President Ebert would "unite the German people, lead them back to work and order and point the way for the slow but sure rebirth of the Fatherland."

President Ebert, in replying, said: "If we desire to rebuild the Fatherland we must labor sacrificially. The whole essence of our constitution must be freedom, but freedom which is regulated by law."

WETS WIN VICTORY
IN FEDERAL COURT

Judge Sanborn, At Madison, Dismisses Case Against Glidden Men Charged With Selling 2.75 Beer

(By United Press)

Madison, August 22—Judge A. L. Sanborn in federal court today dismissed the case against five Glidden (Ashland county) saloon keepers, charged by Federal Attorney A. C. Wolfe with selling 2.75 beer.

This is the first victory for the wets in this state since the legislature defeated the prohibition enforcement bill and passed the Mulberger bill permitting the sale of 2.50 beer.

Judge upheld the defendants' motion to quash the information and ruled that it is up to the government to show that the beer sold was intoxicating.

Attorney Wolfe announced that no further arrests would be made on charges of selling 2.75 beer, but that an appeal would be taken to higher court.

MILWAUKEE MAIL MEN
ASK INCREASE OF PAY

(By United Press)

Milwaukee, August 23—Letter carriers and postoffice clerks of the city will hold a mass meeting tomorrow at West Side Turner Hall to agitate for an immediate increase in pay and protest against the Madden bill, now before congress, which they declare will alleviate conditions only in cities where conditions are extraordinary. Numerous men are said to be leaving the postal service not only in Milwaukee but in all parts of the state because of inadequate pay. Chambers of Commerce have been complaining of inferior service. Charles Duggy, Chicago, treasurer of the national association of letter carriers, Mrs. Frank Halas, Chicago, and Postmaster Frank B. Schutz will be among the speakers.

ABSENCE OF AMERICANS

(By United Press)

Berlin, August 22—Absence of American representation on the inter-allied commission which is considering German-Polish relations, leaving for upper Silesia today to review the situation there, was resented today by members of the Polish delegation here. Members of the American mission in Berlin explained that the question was outside its jurisdiction. The American mission in Warsaw, it was stated, was authorized to act as it saw fit.

WAGE DISPUTE
SETTLED SOON

Rail Director Hines Expected to Give Answer Today to Railway Shopmen Who Demand New Scale of Pay

MEN ARE STANDING PAT

Early Returns from Ballot Show Men Almost Solid in Favor of Demands

(By United Press)
Washington, August 23—Leaders of 500,000 organized railway shopmen expected an answer today from Railroad Director Hines on their demands for wage increases, according to Secretary Conlon of the railway department of the American Federation of Labor.

Indications that Hines may already have his answer ready were seen in the fact that Hines yesterday conferred with President Wilson for the second time this week. Hines has refused to say what his answer will be. Should Hines grant the wage increases asked by the shopmen, freight rate increases may follow, officials of the railway administration believe.

The shopmen are determined to force the granting of their demands, according to early returns received in the strike vote now being taken.

"About 98 per cent of the votes already counted are for standing pat on the original demands presented January 1 for increases from 68 to 85 cents an hour," said Conlon today. The demands also include a provision that the increase be made retroactive from January 1.

STATE COMMISSION
HEARS LOCAL CASES

Chief Examiner of Wisconsin Industrial Commission at Madison Spends Wednesday in Stevens Point

L. A. Tarrell, chief examiner of the Wisconsin Industrial Commission, spent Wednesday in Stevens Point hearing cases in dispute relative to the application of the workmen's compensation law. He was accompanied by L. B. Petrell, reporter, the two leaving for Superior Thursday morning to spend two days on similar work.

The case of Robert Slack of Plover vs. the Turtle Lake Lumber Co. was taken up before Mr. Tarrell. Slack was hurt in the woods near Winchester, Wis., in December, 1916, while in the employ of the lumber company. Two bones in his right leg were broken and dispute arose over the length of time he was disabled and the extent of his permanent disability.

Another case up before the commission's examiner was that of Frank Packer vs. the Jackson Milling Co. Packer is a resident of Amherst, and the accident occurred at Amherst. Mr. Packer claimed that he sustained a rupture while engaged in lifting a sack of flour on September 25, 1918. The claim was settled on Wednesday.

Still another case taken up was that of Anton Tuszke, 618 Union street, Stevens Point, vs. the Joerns Bros. Furniture Co. Mr. Tuszke was injured on June 4, 1918, the knives in a jointer cutting off the little and middle fingers on his left hand. He was laid up for some time and infection set in. The question in dispute was over the length of time the man was laid up and whether or not the company should reimburse him for expense incurred in getting medical treatment. The company offered Mr. Tuszke the services of a physician, but he refused to accept its physician and employed one of his own.

A case involving two parties at Waupaca also came up, Emil Lehn, who was in the employ of N. Nohen, claiming to have sustained a rupture while lifting a roll of linoleum.

The three claims still pending will come before all the commission members at Madison, after which decisions in writing will be rendered.

CONTINUE THE HUNT
FOR BANDIT BAND

American Cavalrymen Still Searching for Mexicans Who Held Army Officers for Ransom—Trail Not Cold

(By United Press)

Marfa, Texas, August 23—The bandit hunt in northern Mexico by American troops continued today without let-up.

Walking horses and pack mules along steep trails, United States cavalrymen scoured the country for members of the Mexican band which held Lieutenants Peterson and Davis for ransom. It has so far proved to be the longest excursion into Mexico since Pershing's punitive expedition in 1916.

The continued presence of United States forces in Mexico was taken to mean that the trail is not growing cold and that officers of the expedition have hopes of trapping more bandits.

RECOVERS FROM ACCIDENT

Will Vaughn of Almond, who was injured a little over a week ago when a Northwestern passenger train hit his car on the Plank crossing at Almond, has so far recovered from his injuries that he was able to go to his home last Sunday.

NO AFFIDAVIT NEEDED

By Turning in Old Hunting License and Paying Fee, New One Will be Issued

County Clerk A. E. Bourn has been advised by the state conservation commission that in issuing hunting licenses for 1919, he need not take affidavit application for persons who made such application and secured a license in 1918.

This means that any person to whom a hunting license was properly issued last year can get a license for this year upon the presentation to the county clerk of his 1918 license and that it will not be necessary in such a case to have an affidavit made, as was required in previous years. In lieu of the former affidavit application the applicant for a license will leave his 1918 license and it will be kept on record. The regular license fee must be paid, however.

Portage county's supply of hunting license blanks have not been received as yet, but they are expected soon.

MAJOR WHITESIDE
COMING HOME SOON

Plover Physician Who Won Two Promotions Overseas Will Resume His Practice in Portage County

Major George D. Whiteside, Plover, is in the United States. He will return to Portage county in the near future and expects to resume his medical practice.

The Plover physician landed in New York from overseas on August 9 and is undoubtedly honorably discharged at this time, as he is visiting at Vergennes, Vermont, at the home of his mother, Mrs. John Whiteside. He will leave for Wisconsin the latter part of this month, coming to Stevens Point.

Major Whiteside has won two splendid promotions during his period of army service in Red Cross work. He entered the service early in the spring of 1915 as a lieutenant and two months later was sent overseas. There he won promotion to the rank of a captain and later was again honored by advancement to major.

In recent months Major Whiteside has been stationed in Paris.

FIREMEN CALLED OUT TO FIND LOST GIRL

The city's police and fire department members were called out late Friday afternoon to aid in the search for Cecile Smith, two and one-half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Smith, 333 Plover street, who had wandered from her home. The little girl was found at 8:30 o'clock in the evening at the corner of Strong's avenue and Wisconsin street, several blocks from home playing with a group of little children.

G.A.R. WILL ASSEMBLE
AT COLUMBUS, OHIO

Training Ranks of Men Who Fought to Preserve the Union to "Fall In" at "Last Big Meeting" Next Month

Columbus, August 23—The 53d national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, looked forward to by the veterans as the "last big meeting" of their glorious organization, will be held in Columbus during the week of September 7-13.

Spanish-American and World war veterans, in addition to the various allied organizations of the G. A. R., will also participate.

President Wilson, General Pershing, and Secretary of War Baker are expected to be present. Other prominent men invited include Secretary of the Navy Daniels, General James H. Wilson and General Nelson A. Miles, of Civil war fame; General John L. Clem, known as "the drummer boy;" Major General Leonard Wood and General H. L. Rodgers, quartermaster general.

Columbus churches will throw open their doors to the veterans September 7, when patriotic services will be conducted. September 9, a campfire will be held at Memorial hall. The encampment parade will be the first in which veterans other than those of the G. A. R. have been invited to participate. The Spanish-American and World war veterans' sections will be an important feature.

Former Governor James E. Campbell, director general of the encampment, said the reunion will practically be the last flicker of the candle, as far as the "boys of '01 to '05" are concerned, as they are rapidly answering the last roll call, and it will not be long until the taps are sounded for those who remain. In view of this, he said, every effort is being made to make the encampment as complete as possible.

A one-cent-a-mile-rate to the encampment has been granted by the United States railroad administration to members of the G. A. R., allied organizations and their immediate families.

Buick Touring Coupe

THE BUICK Model K-Six-46 is a true Coupe model, with permanent sides and roof, an exceptionally wide body, and its graceful contour eliminates all open spaces between the body and fenders. From the outside, the appearance of the car is low, rakish and well-balanced, but there has been no sacrifice of interior head room. The rear fenders are new in design, with touring car running boards. Top, window casings and sashes, are fully metal covered, eliminating the possibility of checks and open joints.

The deeply upholstered interior is finished in a new and improved fabric, without bindings. Back of the driver's seat is a carrying space, with another in the rear deck. Electric side lamps are mounted on the cowl and a dome illuminates the interior. The double-latch doors may be locked from the outside.

FAIR CLOSES FRIDAY NIGHT WITH SUCCESS

Although the Attendance on the Last Day Fails to Equal that of Thursday, Officials are Well Pleased with the Results

FRIDAY'S RACES PLEASE

Two Lone Pacers Put on Good Exhibition in the Afternoon—Children at the Fair Number Thousands

FAIR RECEIPTS

	1910	1918
Tuesday	$ 531.10	$ 41.25
Wednesday	752.10	630.75
Thursday	4,041.06	1,974.58
Friday	1,077.05	1,604.10
Totals	$6,401.31	$3,250.98

The Stevens Point fair came to a close on Friday. Although almost ideal weather conditions continued on the last day, the attendance dropped below expectations. Thursday's receipts exceeded those of Thursday of last year by a big margin, but Friday's receipts were less than the figures on the last day of the fair a year ago.

It is estimated that between four and five thousand people were in attendance Friday. A big percentage of the number were children, this fact keeping the receipts low as they were admitted free on the last day. The grand stand was comfortably filled, although it held less than half the number of the preceding day. Grand stand tickets sold on Thursday numbered 1,583, on Friday, 725.

Unqualified Success

In spite of the poorer attendance on Friday, however, the fair was a success and the directors and officers are well pleased with the results. Although figures are not yet available, it is known that the association came out better than even. Rainy weather on Wednesday failed to detract from the success of the fair, and the fine weather of the two following days insured an "even break" for the association financially.

Races A Feature

It is doubtful if any fair in Wisconsin this year will stage a program of races which will surpass the splendid speed program carried out here. With a total of 119 entries, nearly 100 horses from more than a dozen states and from Canada were here, and a number of races were made in splendid time. The track was in excellent condition.

The Race Results

The results of Friday's races are as follows:

2:17 Pace; Purse $400
Irene Gentry—2-1-1-1
Hal Mac—1-7-6-3
Marie W.—6-2-2-2
Joe Leader—3-3-8-4
Earl Onida—5-8-3
Carma Seata—4-4-4
Frank P.—8-5-7
Barney Patchen—7-6-5
Time: 2:11 1/2, 2:17 1/4, 2:17 1/2.
2:10 Trot; Purse $300
David C.—1-1-1
Six Cylinder Penn—3-2-3
Banker—4-3-2
Shaker Boy—2-4-5
De Witt—6-6-4
Torrent—5-5-7
Dr. Thornway—7-7-10
Charlie G.—8-11-11
Mable Dyon—4-8-8
Black River Boy—11-10-6
Bright Patch—10-9-9
Time: 2:17 1/4, 2:15 1/4, 2:18.

Race Against Time

In a race against time Friday afternoon, Clowm made a mile in 2:24, paced by George Gano. Miss Deal, Clowm's opponent, raced alone paced by a horse driven by H. E. McNutt of Oxford, making a mile in 2:21 and winning the race. Miss Deal was purchased by Mr. McNutt from Paul Zintar of Weyauwega on Thursday, and her new owner issued a challenge to the owner of Clowm, the challenge being accepted. The race was run in excellent time.

Concessions Did Well

Generally speaking, concessions and stands enjoyed a flourishing business on the last two days of the fair and especially on Thursday. "War-time" prices charged for soft drinks and other refreshments at a majority of the stands was responsible for a smaller sale on Friday, as many children were unwilling to pay the higher prices asked.

Attractions Pleased

Attractions booked by the fair directors pleased the crowds on the three days of the fair. The program was of a varied nature, ranging from acrobatic stunts and tight wire acts, to singing, and each individual number was well worth seeing.

Trouble With Boys

The management experienced some trouble on Wednesday and Thursday in keeping boys from stealing their way into the grounds. One arrest was made on Wednesday. Alfred Leo of Stevens Point was placed under arrest on a disorderly conduct charge. He appeared before Judge J. A. Murat in municipal court on Thursday morning. Upon recommendation of fair officials, he was shown leniency, and permitted to pay only the costs, which amounted to $3.70.

Crowds Orderly

Crowds were orderly during the fair both at the grounds and in the downtown business district. Seven extra police were on duty up town and at the grounds and six arrests were made during the week. Three arrests were made for violation of the traffic ordinance. The cases will come up in municipal court next week when Judge Murat returns from Chicago. The persons arrested live in the county outside of the city. Two will appear to answer to the charge of speeding, and one for reckless driving.

Two men who were fair followers were arrested on suspicion on Tuesday evening, and ordered out of the city Wednesday morning.

One Auto Accident
Only one auto accident was reported for the week. Nick Gross, driving his Reo roadster east on Main street at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, collided with the Ford touring car owned and driven by Engineer G. H. Scoville. The accident occurred at the corner of Strong's avenue and Main. Mr. Scoville was driving north on Strong's avenue and the Gross car struck the Ford as he was turning onto Main. A tool box on the running board of the Scoville car was damaged, and the bumper on the front of the Gross machine knocked off. No one was injured.

It is believed that there were more cars in the city on Thursday than on any other day in the city's history. The fact that there was but one accident during the week is a remarkable record, considering the number of cars driven about the city during the fair.

Loses Pocketbook
The loss of a pocketbook by Fred Morgan of Waupaca on Wednesday was reported to the police. It contained $6. Mr. Morgan is 82 years of age and relatives of the aged man from Sheridan who were here for the fair reported that it was not known how the pocketbook was lost, but it was believed to have been lost when Mr. Morgan was in the chicken house-keeping over the poultry exhibits. Relatives did not know whether his pocket had been picked or not.

An Attractive Display
One of the really attractive displays at the Stevens Point fair was the work of Marion and Esther Cate, Thersabelle Welch and Amelia Bannach, four girl residents of Stockton township who have been especially active in the pursuit of household arts. They showed dozens of cans of preserved fruit and many equally fine specimens of sewing and dyeing. As a reward for their efforts the quartette will receive a free trip to the state fair at Milwaukee. A portion of the local exhibit will also be taken to the big show.

Fine Floral Display
Fifteen varieties of cut flowers, ten of asters and numerous well arranged showings of wild flowers were brought to the fair by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Haag, 532 Illinois avenue, both of whom devote a large portion of each season to raising choice bulbs and plants. They received first premium on 13 entries and five were given second awards. Mr. Haag also exhibited 10 varieties of vegetables, getting six blue ribbons and four red ones.

DOCKS MAY SHUT DOWN

Unless Employees Return to Work on Former Wage Scale—Traffic is Hampered

According to information received at Ashland from E. D. Brigham, manager of the head of the lakes district, U. S. railroad administration, the ore docks at Ashland will not be operated this season unless the men go back to work pending a settlement of their wage demands by the wage board. The men employed on the Ashland docks have been on strike for several weeks, and as a result railroad traffic and movements on the lakes out of Ashland are greatly hampered.

"Resumption of shipments to all docks at Ashland, where the top dock workers went on strike, will be started when these men return to work on the scale of wages in effect when they walked out, and not until then," is the message sent by Manager Brigham. He further stated that what applies to the consideration of wages of shop men who have been on a strike will apply to other classes of railroad workers, including the ore dock workers who are now on a strike at Ashland. Their case cannot and will not be considered until these men report for work.

LOCAL PEOPLE RETURN

FROM WESTERN TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Leahy returned Thursday morning from a western trip of four weeks covering nearly 6,500 miles. They visited numerous former Stevens Point people at the western cities where they stopped. At Sierra Madre, Calif., they visited with Claude Shumway, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shumway of this city and at Los Angeles called upon John W. Strobe and wife. A visit to the Santa Catalina island in the Pacific was included in their trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Leahy visited in San Francisco and Portland and stopped at McMinnville, Ore. At the latter place they visited with John Tardiff. Going to Spokane, they called upon W. E. Allen and family. Mr. Allen was formerly proprietor of the Stevens Point Business college. The local couple also called upon George Geister and wife at Spokane and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Curtis in the Coeur d'Alene district, Idaho.

Returning, Mr. and Mrs. Leahy traveled via Winnipeg, stopping off at Lake Louise and other places of interest enroute.

HEAVY LOSS BY FIRE

WHEN BUILDINGS BURN
Fire on the Ole Rierson farm near Tola destroyed a barn filled with hay, an adjoining granary filled with grain, and numerous articles of farm machinery. It is believed to have originated from a hot box on a threshing separator.

RECORD FISH CATCHES

Two of the largest fish of the season were caught at Rhinelander when a 44-pound muskie, measuring four feet and six inches, was pulled out of the Wisconsin river by Miss Laurel Hurlbut; and a seven and one-half pound green bass was landed by Omer Amundson.

(By United Press)
Washington, August 22—General John J. Pershing, when he returns to the United States, will be accorded a spectacular reception, if plans prepared today are carried out by congress.

Pershing is scheduled to arrive in New York September 8 or 9, and President Wilson may meet him there. Chairman Kahn of the house military affairs committee has prepared a resolution asking that a special joint session of congress be set for September 18 to welcome Pershing, and has also asked for the appointment of a special committee of five senators and seven representatives to arrange for the reception. At that time, if Chairman Kahn's plans are carried out, the commander in chief of the American Expeditionary Forces will be presented with a gold sword as an appreciation of his services.

He is the first La Crosse man to go to South America seeking business for his firm. He was in the submarine service during the war, leaving the University of Wisconsin to join the navy. Hundreds of Wisconsin young men mustered out of war service are entering commercial channels which will take them to South America and European countries as pioneers in the new commercial era that is promised to begin as soon as peace is ratified by congress.

BELGIANS HONOR MARTYRS

(By United Press)
Dinant, Belgium, August 23—Profound religious and civil ceremonies were held here today in commemoration of 600 inhabitants of this town who were shot by the Germans five years ago today, in their march across Belgium. Paul Deschanel, president of the French Chamber of Deputies, delivered a speech lauding the part played by Belgium in saving the world. Large crowds gathered to hear the consecration of the walls against which the martyrs gave their lives. Cardinal Mercier said brief prayers and thanked God for the blessings of peace. The inhabitants will perform this ceremony every year as a dedication to their dead comrades.

MRS. E. WEEK DIES

Former Stevens Point Woman Expires Friday at Her Home at Oakland, California

A telegram received in the city Friday evening contained the announcement of the death of Frances Hortense Finch Week which occurred at Oakland, Calif., that day. She was the wife of Edmund R. Week, who is a brother of Miss Martha Week, N. A. Week and J. A. Week of this city. Although Mrs. Week had been in poor health, her death was unexpected, and the telegram announcing that she had passed away came as a shock to local relatives. No word has been received here regarding the time or place of the funeral.

The late Mrs. Week was a resident of Spokane but had been in Oakland since June. Her son, Edmund R. Week, Jr., is in business in San Francisco. The family formerly lived in Stevens Point and is well known among local people.

WOMAN, 70, HAS FIVE

DEGREES, WANTS SIX

Madison, Wis., August 23—One of the graduates of the summer session at the University of Wisconsin was Mrs. Ellen A. Copp, 70, and a grandmother. She pursued studies in sociology and eugenics, preparatory to receiving a degree of doctor of philosophy.

Mrs. Copp already had five college degrees and is author of several books. She was one of the two first "co-eds" at Pennsylvania state college and was one of the first women to take a theological course and to be ordained to the ministry. Among the several pastorates she held was one at Evansville, Wis. This is her second summer session at the Badger university. She received the degree of bachelor of laws at Wisconsin in 1910.

Mrs. Copp received the master's degree at the time her daughter graduated from Hilldale college. On the day her eldest son received his first degree, she received the degree of bachelor of divinity. When her second son graduated from the engineering course she received the degree of bachelor of laws. She hopes to complete the doctor's degree in another year.

ARMY WORM SHOWS UP

OVER IN WOOD COUNTY

The army worm has appeared in Wood county. Steps are being taken by W. W. Clark, county agent, to devise means to eradicate the pest. All farmers have been asked to appoint themselves inspectors of cornfields and should try to destroy the worm before any serious damage is done.

Army worms threaten a large part of the Wisconsin corn crop in the section ranging northeast from the lakes at Madison to the upper end of Lake Winnebago. Thus far, appearance of the worm has been reported in Dane, Dodge, Columbia, Fond du Lac, Winnebago and Calumet counties.

SOO LINE PASSENGER STONED BY STRIKERS

Port Edwards Strikers Object to Importation of Strike Breakers and Try to Put Blame on Railroad Men

What was described by railroad men as a violent demonstration if not a riot attended the arrival of 60 additional strikebreakers at the Nekoosa-Edwards mills at Port Edwards at 5 a. m. Wednesday, when a howling mob of men and women gave the newcomers a warm welcome, and attacked Soo line trainmen because they had hauled the men to the mill town.

According to Station Agent W. L. Atwood of Grand Rapids, stones were hurled through one or more windows of the coaches in which the strikebreakers were riding and a number of missiles were thrown at the crew, a rock striking Engineer C. E. James. A mild demonstration occurred when the train arrived in Grand Rapids and pickets at the Soo depot made a number of remarks to the new men and are alleged to have abused the railroad men, calling them traitors and other names for bringing the men in. It is said that the crowd was particularly threatening to Conductor Hennell, who left the cars when the train approached and stopped before the crowds.

A later report from Grand Rapids was to the effect that a serious outbreak between strikers and strikebreakers which was threatening several days ago, is past. Wood county's sheriff has a corps of special officers on duty night and day in both river villages.

Proof that the Nekoosa-Edwards Paper Co. has used misrepresentation in securing labor in Chicago and other cities, and that the men are kept in the lockade at Port Edwards by intimidation is claimed to have been secured by union paper makers in Grand Rapids, developing a new and interesting angle in the strike situation.

LARGE ORDERS TAKEN

Orders for government foodstuffs in Fond du Lac are reported to be large. The post-office force has been kept busy supplying the wants of the patrons. That the goods offered by the government are first class is evidenced by the fact that many articles are being placed by soldiers or parents of soldiers who know the quality of the food.

POLICE ASK RAISE

Fond du Lac police have applied for an increase in wages. The matter has been referred to the council for consideration. The schedule named in the petitions filed is: Chief, $175 per month; patrolmen, $100 first six months, then $110. This is an increase of $25 for the chief and $10 for the others.

AUTO LICENSE MONEY

Portage County Residents Paid $25,000 in Fees up to Year Ending June 30

Portage county residents paid to the state during the fiscal year ending June 30 the sum of $25,000 in motor vehicle licenses. After the expenses of administration have been deducted, 75 per cent of the total amount goes to the state highway fund and 25 per cent is returned to the counties. Within a few days Portage county should receive her portion of the license money, which should amount to about $6,000.

Secretary of State Hall announced Wednesday that a total of $2,386,122 had been collected in auto license fees during the past year as compared with $2,049,390 for last year. The cost of administration of the law during the past year was $75,743.10, of which $12,000 was spent in salaries, $18,190.84 in postage and $37,743.70 for plates. Deducting the total sum received leaves $2,310,378.90. Certain adjustments with last year's apportionment gave $582,647.36 to be divided among the counties on the basis of proportionate amount of money received. Sixty-five per cent, or $2,230,590.40, went into the state trunk highway fund.

Portage County and the Road Hearing

Unless the people of Portage county arouse themselves at once, lay out a plan of campaign and attend the trunk line highway hearing at Stevens Point on Tuesday, August 26, in large numbers, there is danger of their interests in the new allotment of roads being sacrificed.

Two years ago the tentative routes in Portage and Wood counties were laid out by the highway commission primarily to benefit Grand Rapids. An attempt was made to sidetrack the city of Stevens Point, with 50 per cent more population than Grand Rapids, and the good city of Marshfield, fully as large and important as Grand Rapids. It took a hard fight to prevent the principal east and west highway through Portage county being laid out on a route by which it would not pass through any city or incorporated village in this county, except that it was to touch the edge of the village of Plover. Because the people of Portage county made it clear that they regarded the tentative program as outrageous, and that they would fight it to the limit, and because the city of Stevens Point and the county's demands were made clear to the special legislative committee, Road 18 was run through Stevens Point to Marshfield.

This year tentative maps of the state commission show a road from Grand Rapids to Plainfield to Wautoma across Portage county. It does not touch an incorporated village, or even a fair-sized settlement in Portage county, yet Portage county is to be called on to assist in the building and up keep of 10 miles of highway laid out primarily to serve another community. The road is set down as a connection between the county seats of Wautoma and Grand Rapids. They are not in adjoining counties. The commission is not laying out a tentative route to connect the county seats in the adjoining counties of Waushara and Portage.

Study of the map and knowledge of the situation indicates where the Wautoma-Grand Rapids road ought to be. It should run north from Wautoma to Almond, thence east to Spirit Lake to connect with Highway 10. It should then run north on 10 to Lone Pine, thence west to Bancroft and across Pine Grove and Grant to Kellner and Grand Rapids, if the commission insists on its policy that the first consideration in road building in Portage county must be to point the roads toward Grand Rapids.

The people of southern Portage county also want a road from the Moore barn east toward the Waupaca county line, or connecting at some point with the Wautoma-Waupaca road. They will not get it unless they make a fight for it. Nor will Almond be given a place on any road unless it fights for it. All that seems to be conceded to Portage county is the Stevens Point-Robert road which is such an important highway that there is no controversy about it.

The special legislative highway committee will be at Stevens Point next Tuesday. The committee and the heads of the highway commission are believed to be fair. That is the time to make the wants of Portage county known. There ought to be no pussy-footing about it. The committee and the commission should be given plainly to understand that, if highways are laid out across Portage county primarily for the benefit of a city in another county, and taxpayers of this county are called on to help build and maintain them, and if the wants of the people of this county are to be considered as less important than those of the county seat in Wood county, the act will be considered here, not merely a serious blunder, but a rank injustice to Portage county. Let the people of Portage county come together, not dividing on small local differences, and let the state know what they want.

Who Are the Producers?

The producers are the men who do the world's work. Most of them do it with their hands. Indeed the impression is sometimes given that those who do not work with their hands are not producers at all. As William A. Accott, director of the School of Commerce of the University of Wisconsin, says: "The laboring man is not the only producer," and as a matter of fact the "greater productive force in the world today is the trained intelligence of the people who direct and inspire the industrial activities of the world." And it is these persons whom these agitators are urging the masses to destroy. See what the genius of a Ford has done for some 30,000 employees in an automobile factory. Without the directing head of this marvelous organization, what would it have developed into? Nothing. Ford has grown rich, of course, but where would those men be if it had not been for Ford. And yet the agitators would annihilate men of the type of Ford and others who have attained wealth through ability and hard work.

If they should succeed, what would be the result? Russia, is the answer. We do not believe America is ready to adopt Soviet rule and plunge into anarchy and riot. Our people will heed the advice of men who offer sound counsel. The trouble we are having is mostly with people of foreign birth with little or no education. Practically all the information they get is from one source, it is one-sided. Education is needed, for, as Mr. Scott says, we can then "preserve what has been developed by the energies of previous generations and proceed to still greater heights of production and civilization in the future."

Antigo Ready to Help

Antigo's interest in the selection of trunk line highway routes should not lapse with the hearing conducted in this city last week, for there are hearings to be held in some of the adjoining counties that may have an important bearing on the choice of roads entering Langlade county. ***

There should not be overlooked the hearing at Stevens Point on August 27 when there will be laid before the trunk line highway committee the proposal to put on the trunk line system a direct route from Waupaca to Stevens Point through the towns of Franzen and Elderon straight north to Eland and connecting with federal highway No. 16, extending east and west, and No. 30, which comes north to Antigo. This would give Antigo direct connections with the central part of the state and afford better access to a section tributary to Antigo. This route was endorsed at the Marathon county hearing—Antigo Journal.

The Soldiers' Bonus Bill

No great public attention is to be given to the soldiers' bonus bill which is to be voted on by the people at the referendum election next Monday. The public appears to be satisfied with the law, and it is presumed that most of the votes cast will be in its favor. The election was unnecessary. The legislature might itself have voted the bonus and invested in it the money it is squandering to hold an election on a subject on which the people are fairly agreed.

Under this law, if ratified, the soldiers will receive a bonus, and they will help pay it to themselves. Part of the money is to be raised by direct taxation, the rest by a special tax on corporations.

While we have no doubt at all that the measure will pass, friends of the soldiers are advised to go to the polls and vote for it. It will be a more satisfactory testimonial to the soldiers if the ratification receives a heavy affirmative vote.

What About Our White Way?

The wooden standards set up as a part of the decoration for the soldiers' homecoming were left in place principally because it was believed they would be lighted again at the fair and would prove a pretty feature.

The lamps in the temporary columns were not lighted any evening in fair week.

Does anybody know why?

—We'll give the reader three guesses as to the name of the man who was most largely responsible for the enormous crowd at the fair grounds Thursday. Yes, you have it right the first time. It was Henry Ford.

—The 12,000 people at the fair grounds Thursday had nothing to drink with conversation in it. Yet they did seem to be having a good time.

J. R. SAWTELL IS DEAD

Former Well Known Local Man Expires Suddenly at the Waupaca Veterans' Home

James R. Sawtell, a former Stevens Point resident who was well known locally, died suddenly at the Veterans' Home near Waupaca on August 12. Funeral services were held the following Thursday from the home chapel, Rev. E. B. Earle officiating.

Charles A. Sawtell, his only son, and a daughter of Milwaukee, attended the funeral. The deceased is also survived by three brothers and one sister. Interment took place in the Home cemetery.

Mr. Sawtell was born at Belvidere, Ill., on Jan. 13, 1846. He enlisted as a private in Co. F, Ninth Minnesota Volunteer Infantry on Jan. 22, 1864, and was honorably discharged at Fort Snelling on August 24, 1865.

The deceased, with his wife, were admitted to the Veterans' Home in December, 1912, going there from Stevens Point. The late Mr. Sawtell was at one time proprietor of the Hand laundry here.

STOCKTON EXHIBITORS

Among the stock exhibitors at the Stevens Point fair were five purebred Percheron horses and nine Poland China hogs owned by M. O'Keefe of Stockton. Leonard P. O'Keefe, his son, exhibited senior and junior Jerseys, and another son, Earl, also exhibited a Jersey in the junior class.

LAND ON MARSH GETS BIG BOOST

sand vetch, rape, sorghum, sunflowers, flax, sugar beets, carrots, pumpkins, field peas and oats, and various other varieties of marsh grass.

Sugar beets have been grown very successfully on the marsh and Mr. Ullsperger recommends them where the soil is well fertilized. Lester Adams, one of the marsh farmers, raised 23½ tons of sugar beets on three acres in 1918 and believes they are well adapted to the marsh soil. A fertilizer heavy in potash and containing some phosphate is recommended for the cultivation of sugar beets.

Corn Does Well

A large field of corn, containing four varieties—Wisconsin No. 7, Minnesota, No. 13, Wisconsin No. 12 and Wisconsin No. 23—made a splendid showing. Even in view of the fact that conditions this year have been exceptionally favorable for corn, the stand is surprisingly good. The ears are numerous and well developed and much of the crop, if not cut for ensilage, would probably mature, although some of it was planted late.

A fine field of buckwheat was also shown, but it was planted late, owing to the shortage of help, and is not expected to mature. If it had been planted early enough, Mr. Ullsperger said, it would now be ready to harvest. This statement is supported by the experience of T. M. Ottrich, manager of the Bradley interests on the marsh, who today began cutting a fine large field of buckwheat.

Ullsperger Well Satisfied
Perhaps no one was more pleased with the results of the experiments at Coddington than Mr. Ullsperger, who had charge of the work. He began his work with an open mind, but the results achieved have proved to him that the marsh land can be made highly productive. He made his statements conservative and let it be known that he did not know it all, but was willing and anxious to learn. Next year, he said, fertilization will be tried out, to prove what is best for the soil, and the crop experiments will be carried further. He asked for suggestions for making the work successful.

Ottrich Doing Big Things

T. M. Ottrich, who has been manager of the Bradley interest on the marsh the past three years, has been doing much constructive work. The Bradley holdings include 8,000 acres of land, of which 4,500 acres are under plow, and it is with the idea of proving that it is well adapted to general farming that great sums of money are being spent to develop the property. Particular attention is being paid to dairying, and every tenant on Bradley property has a herd of five cows or more. "There is not a scrub bull on the marsh, to my knowledge," Mr. Ottrich said to a representative of the Journal-Gazette Saturday. The idea is to develop herds of the better grade, and in this the Bradley people are lending every assistance. The 200 Hereford cattle which are being fattened on the marsh for market have been previously mentioned upon, as have also the large number of sheep grazing there. Both cattle and sheep are doing well and are expected to be given even more attention in the future.

The Bradley people, under the supervision of Mr. Ottrich, erected three sets of farm buildings last spring and this fall will build three more sets. The new buildings will be for A. Brum, Frank Tibbets and Frank Searles.

Another improvement to be made in the near future is the building of a road, one mile in length, west from a point near the residence of W. B. Coddington. It is planned to eventually connect this road with the state road at Keene, which would give many farmers in that section good access to the Coddington station, which would materially decrease their haul to market.

It is now planned to furnish tenants with commercial fertilizer. The cost of which was for a time almost prohibitive, Mr. Ottrich said. "We now have a waiting list of farmers who are seeking locations on the marsh," he asserted.

Successful Marsh Farmers

The names of some of the farmers in the drainage district who are making a success of their ventures, together with other information, are given below:

O. W. Radston; first year on marsh; operates 260-acre farm known as the old Wellier place; has good crops of corn, oats, potatoes and rye; milking 10 head of Holsteins; has 50 sheep.

Fred Osterhaus; moved to marsh in 1918; has 200 acres; crops good, especially corn, which has grown to great height, attracting much attention.

Beecher Jacks; moved to marsh in 1918; has 320 acres; good corn, soy beans and oats; 12 cows.

Ira Judd; has 160 acres; good oats, rye, beets, and potatoes; six cows.

Frank Pierce; came to marsh year ago; has 160 acres; good corn, beets and other crops; eight cows.

Peter Brandt; first year on marsh; has 240 acres; good corn and hay; 10 cows.

Ralph Barnes; second year on marsh; 450 acres; good crops; has 80 Herefords and seven or eight dairy cows.

John Woyach, a Portage county man, has been on the marsh two years; has 280 acres; 12 cows.

O. Bird; second year; 160 acres; five cows.

Ryna Evert; first year; 160 acres; five cows.

Clarence Weldon; first year; 320 acres; good oats, buckwheat and hay; 10 cows.

Ed Perron; first year; 160 acres; six cows.

Clarence Woods; first year; 160 acres; eight cows.

Clarence Woods; first year; 160 acres; eight cows.

Dan Williams; first year 200 acres; 10 cows.

Charles Ostrander; first year; 320 acres; eight cows.

Fred Fenner; first year; 260 acres; 10 cows.

C. H. Emans; first year; 400 acres; 12 dairy cows; 80 head Hereford steers.

CONGRESS HELPS MAN WHO SACRIFICED MUCH

Henry Bitter, Who Has Relatives in Stevens Point, Granted Special Allowance as Reward for Service

The following article from last week's issue of Leslie's magazine will be of interest to Stevens Point people. The young man concerned is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Piffner, 614 Strong's avenue. The article was headed, "A Sad Story of the War."

"A peace maneuver in France, five days after the signing of the armistice, cost a young American soldier both eyes and both hands. He had gone unwounded through the fighting on the battlefields. It is the only injury of this kind that has come before the Bureau of War Risk Insurance. In asking congress to make a special allowance for the terribly wounded soldier, Representative Burton E. Sweet, of Iowa, told the story of the tragedy as follows:

Five Days After Armistice
"This soldier of the Republic is Henry A. Bitter. He is a resident of Dubuque, Iowa, and on May 27, 1918, he enlisted in Company C, Three Hundred and Fifty-second United States Infantry. When the armistice was signed, he was back of the Alsace front. Just after the armistice was signed he was ordered to the Toul sector and was billeted at Lucey. He was then detailed to go to Lunville to a divisional gas school. On the 16th day of November, 1918, five days after the armistice was signed, the captain in command ordered a maneuver in honor of an American brigadier general and some French officers. The participants were to simulate an advance through a smoke screen and carried their rifles in one hand and an offense hand grenade in the other. The pit or key in the hand grenade which he carried worked its way out, and the grenade prematurely exploded, blowing off both his hands and utterly destroying the sight of both his eyes.

Hands Amputated
"He was sent to a base hospital near Toul and both hands were immediately amputated just above the wrist joints. The surgeon gave him some hope that he might regain the sight in one eye. Some five weeks after he received his injuries he was examined by an eye specialist and was told that he would never recover his sight and that he would always be totally blind. Since returning to the United States he has consulted eye specialists in New York City and Baltimore and they have given him no hope whatever of recovering his eyesight. Before entering the army he was a pharmacist in the employ of the Torbet Drug Co. of Dubuque.

"He had worked his way through school and obtained his position on merit. He is now 23 years old. His father is 63 years of age and a tailor by trade, residing at Dubuque, Iowa. His mother is 60 years of age. There are five children in the family, three of whom are still living at home. His mother's hands are filled with household duties. His father's home is not full paid for as yet. He has no other trade or profession besides that of pharmacist. He has been honorably discharged from the army. When he appeared before our committee, he said: "I have lost much and have tried to keep from becoming despondent. I will try to fight for what there is left in life." He has an abiding faith that the government for which he sacrificed so much will treat him justly. Gentlemen of the house, if you could see this young man with both hands gone and both eyes destroyed; if you could see him in his helplessness and hopelessness, I am sure you would not hesitate to pass this bill for an extra palty $100 per month for an attendant."

"Both houses passed the bill unanimously."

Remains Cheerful

Mr. Bitter is now at his home in Dubuque, and, according to near relatives, is happy in the hope that some day he may be able to see again. Although army physicians gave up all hope of ever restoring his sight, he has not despaired. A specialist in Milwaukee has given him encouragement and he may eventually be able to see enough to get around, although he will never be able to read fine print. The physician in Milwaukee says that he has a cataract over one eye which can be removed, and thus partially regain his sight. Bitter is to undergo an operation for the removal of this cataract early in September.

Because of the loss of his hands, he is unable to care for himself in any way. He has several pairs of artificial hands, which are really little more than ornaments. Nevertheless he keeps up his courage and has not been heard to complain of his ill fortune.

BREAKS BOTH LEGS

IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Fred Staay of Kimberly, near Neenah, had both legs broken when the bicycle he was riding was hit by an automobile near Combined Locks Tuesday morning. He is now a patient at St. Elizabeth's hospital at Appleton. The name of the driver of the auto which figured in the crash was not learned.

MANY RURAL SCHOOLS

OPEN FOR FALL TERM

Nearly one-half of Portage county's rural schools have opened for the fall session. By next Monday a large majority of the schools will have begun sessions. The Misses Cora Dorrude and Mary Rychwalski, county supervising teachers, will begin a visitation of the schools next week.

OBITUARY

Edward Zylka

Edward Zylka, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zylka, 253 North Second street, died at the family home at 11:30 o'clock Saturday evening. His death was caused by heart trouble and inflammatory rheumatism and followed an illness of two years. He had been confined to his bed for the past two weeks and during that time his condition was critical.

Decceased was born in Stevens Point on September 19, 1907, and attended local schools. He is survived by his parents and the following brothers and sisters: John, Michael, Jr., Matty, Marie, Regina, Christina and Rose. Frank, another son of Mr. and Mrs. Zylka, died in army service at San Leon, Tex., on Feb. 22.

Funeral services were held from St. Peter's Catholic church at 8:30 o'clock this morning. Rev. S. A. Elbert officiated. Interment took place in the Guardian Angels' cemetery.

Mrs. Jacob Zoromski

Mrs. Jacob Zoromski of Polonia died at her home on Sunday noon following an illness of more than a month. Her death was caused by old age and she had been confined to her bed for four weeks.

Decceased was born in German-Poland 83 years ago, and was married to Mr. Zoromski in that country. The family came to America, locating at Polonia 47 years ago.

The widower and two sons, Teofil of Sharon and Frank of Hatley, survive.

The time of the funeral has not been arranged, although it will probably be held on Tuesday morning from the Sacred Heart church at Polonia.

Funeral of Charles Chapman

The funeral of the late Charles L. Chapman was held at 10 o'clock Thursday morning from the family home at 127 Algoma street. A short service was held at the house, Rev. G. M. Calhoun officiating, after which the remains were taken to Forest cemetery, where the Odd Fellows conducted their ritualistic service.

BEEBLE CAUSES TROUBLE

Sleeping under canvas at the fair grounds isn't without its disadvantages. This is the opinion of at least one Portage county young man who is in Stevens Point this week for the fair. He is Lester Brooks, Route No. 1, Plover, and is one of the contestants who has entered a calf in the big Portage County Calf club display which is creating so much interest at the fair grounds.

The young man, together with other contestants who have entered calves at the fair, slept at the fair grounds on Wednesday night. He awoke early Thursday with a loud buzzing in his ear and experienced severe pain in his head. He was rushed to the home of a local physician who removed a live beetle nearly an inch long. The bug had crawled into the ear and lodged against the ear drum. Its removal resulted in his immediate relief and Lester was able to return to the grounds to look after his calf at the big exhibit.

Desirable Immigrants

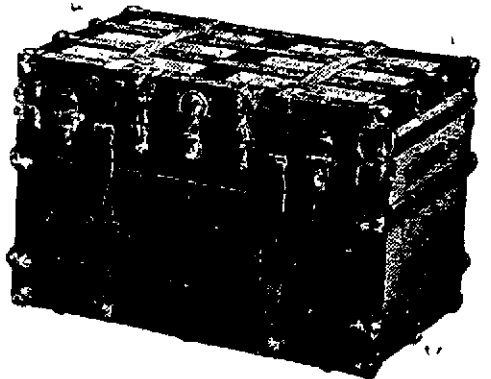

Recently a vessel docked at New York on which were ill desirable immigrants. In fact, they were aristocrats of their kind, for they were purebred Guernsey and Jersey cows from England. This is one of the first importations since the war and is noteworthy on that account. Our language, laws and institutions came from England as did also many things valuable in our national life. But one of our most valuable gifts from England is this type of dairy cow, which originated in the little channel islands. Guernsey, for instance has an area of only nine square miles, but its dairy record is in inverse ratio to its size. Dairy cows already add about a billion dollars a year to our national wealth and this amount can be greatly increased in the future when farmers learn the value of pure bred stock like that which just arrived. One has to but look at the record of some of the thoroughbreds to be convinced that here is a source of wealth and material good almost unthinkable in magnitude. There's Nugest Primrose for instance of the Oaks Farm. Her two-year old record was 15,436 pounds of milk. Compare this with 4,000 pounds for an average, fully developed cow, and one feels more like extending a hearty welcome to the ill of her kind who have just come over to make America their home and to America's advantage.

Mr. Farmer, if you have no purebred sires on your farm, would urge that you get them at once. We will be glad to help you.

Paper Mill Assessments

Editor Journal-Gazette:

In a recent issue of the Journal the assessed value of certain water power and paper mill plants was given, the list having been compiled to present to the board of review at Stevens Point to make it appear that the assessment against the similar plant at Stevens Point was comparatively high.

In justice to the assessment as made at Stevens Point I would therefore like to call attention to some facts in connection with this comparison.

The Wisconsin River Paper & Pulp Co. plant was assessed at $477,000, but Mr. Hulbert, the state engineer, who examined this plant four years ago, placed no value whatever on the dam there, saying it was an old wooden dam that might go out at any time. Were there a new, modern, concrete dam there like the one at Stevens Point the assessment would doubtless have been proportionately larger. So also with the Whiting-Plover Paper Co., with the difference also that their water power is small comparatively, and this is doubtless true of some of the other plants mentioned, as for example the new plant at McDill, the water power of which is insignificant compared with that at Stevens Point.

The comparison might be continued by including the plants at Port Edwards and Nekoosa. At Port Edwards the plant is assessed at $555,000 and at Nekoosa at $1,200,000, but in addition to the water power and paper mill at each of those places there is also a sulphite mill. It should be mentioned in this connection, however, that the other real estate at each of those places is assessed at only about 70 per cent of the selling value of the real estate at those places in 1918, while the real estate of Stevens Point is assessed this year at about 90 per cent of the selling value of 1918. Also in addition to the plants mentioned at and near Appleton there might be mentioned the Kimberly-Clark plant at Kimberly and the Combined Locks Paper company at Combined Locks, each one of which is assessed at $1,200,000.

A. P. EEN.

LANARK MAN DIGS WELL

GETS CONTINUOUS FLOW

While driving a pipe for a well on the farm of Carl Gruelke of the town of Lanark, John Kozickowski, the Ambassador Junction pump man, struck a fine flow of water which makes a splendid fountain. The pipe was driven about 90 feet before water was reached, but when down this depth the water rushed to the top of the pipe and the flow will average several barrels a day. This fountain is one of the very few in Portage county.

Yours respectfully,

GOOD STAND OF CORN

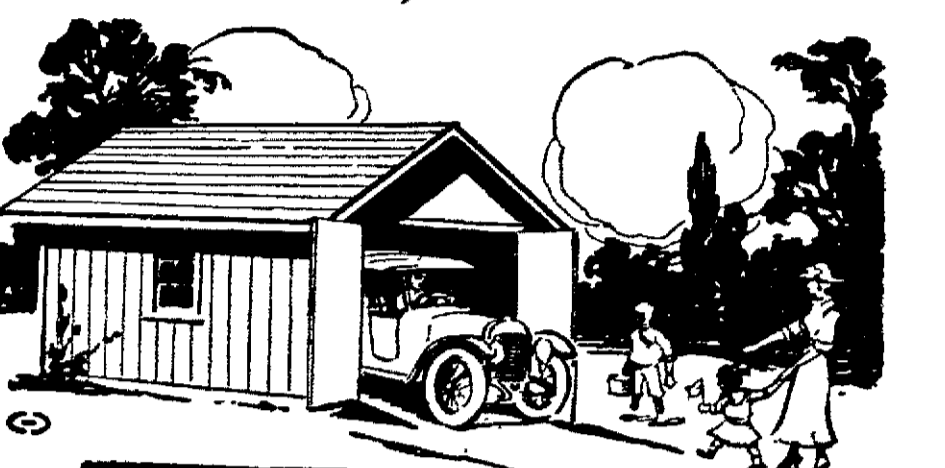

John Wroblewski of Plover is one of the many Portage county farmers this year who boasts of a good corn crop. He was in Stevens Point Thursday with several prize ears of white dent and white cap corn. One of the largest ears contained more than 600 ly in the fall for his next year's crop.

A STEVENS POINT MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Stevens Point citizen? You can verify Stevens Point endorsement.

Read this: J. B. Marshall, 302 Monroe St., says: "A year ago last summer I had trouble from a dull pain across my back and I think it was brought on by a strain from lifting. The trouble caused me a great deal of annoyance. Knowing that one of my neighbors recommended Doan's Kidney Pills highly, I tried them. They relieved me quickly and soon rid me of the pain entirely. Doan's went right to the seat of the trouble and strengthened my kidneys. I can say that Doan's Kidney Pills are all they are claimed to be."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Marshall had. Fister-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

You can easily afford a garage of good "Old Faithful" HEMLOCK and we will supply 2 books on garages and REAL WORKING PLANS free. One book deals with special garages for Ford cars.

HOME COMING BALL WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Big Event Held at Dancy Last Wednesday in Honor of Ex-Servicemen Was Event to be Remembered

Dancy, August 25.—Notwithstanding the heavy rain storm that prevailed all evening, the soldiers' homecoming ball last Wednesday evening was a success beyond all expectations. There were fully 100 ex-servicemen present and about one-half of the number were in uniform. Many of the boys present wore many stripes and markings on their uniforms, indicative of their many dangerous experiences and branches of the service. None of these happy experiences reflected on their happy faces on this occasion. It was a sight long to be remembered. Among the many who were present none had more hair-breadth experiences than Sylvester Krieg of Mosinee. Mr. Krieg enlisted at the first call of our country. He was in the Rainbow Division, was on the front during the first great battles and made several trips over the top with death present on all sides. He returned a short time ago in perfect health, while the greater number of his companions remained over there. Upon an invitation from a committee having the affair in charge, Franklin Grizmacher of Wausau was present and delivered the address of welcome to the boys, which was well delivered and enthusiastically received. The music by the Fourth Infantry orchestra of Wausau was fine. Among those who were present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Week and Miss Ellida Moen of Stevens Point, who came to meet the Portage county boys who were present: Earl Lutz, New York; Richard Lutz, just from Panama; Mrs. A. E. Duzzo, Superior; Franklin Grizmacher, Ray and Thomas Malone and sister, Miss Eva, Wausau; Miss Evelyn Knoller and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoegel, Milwaukee; Misses Canby of Custer; Miss Gertrude Marchel, St. Paul; Miss Michael Copess, Grand Rapids; and Frank Swatoski, just from Newport News, Va. "The money that is left over after expenses will be used later to give the boys some form of entertainment. The ladies wish to most kindly thank all those who assisted and E. E. Toplam for the free use of his hall.

Tourists Go Through
The past few days many autos passed this way from other states, especially Iowa and Illinois. Others were from as far as Florida, Kentucky, and Wyoming. Distance may not lend enthusiasm but there is one thing sure, it cuts no figure any more. It looks as though even sentiment is undergoing a change.

$18,000 for Farm
Charles F. Daul, who owned a fine farm in the town of Green Valley, in which town Mr. Daul is chairman, disposed of same the past week to Milwaukee parties for $18,000 and retains a part of the stock. Mr. Daul was purchased a smaller farm one mile from Marshfield, which he expects to use entirely for raising and feeding cattle. This will give Mr. Daul more time to give to his lumbering interests. Real estate is very active all through this section and bringing high prices.

Local and Personal
Mr. and Mrs. C. Hoegel of Milwaukee visited a few days here recently at the G. G. Knoller home and among many other friends. Mrs. Hoegel was joined by Miss Alice Linwood and was joined by Dancy. She with her husband will soon go to Miami Fla. to reside here which city they own a farm ranch.

Miss Grace Landson of Madison, who is a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Daniels at Mosinee, spent last Tuesday afternoon with Miss Evelyn Knoller here. Miss Landson is employed at the University of Wisconsin in typographical work.

Work along all lines progressed nicely last week.

Quit a number from here attended the fair at Stevens Point the past week and reported same very good.

Miss Evelyn L. Knoller of Milwaukee spent the past week at her home here, returning to the Cream city Saturday evening.
